MOved, that the Laird of Maldrum might be admitted Commissioner for the Burgh of Dornagh since the competing Commissioner had withdrawn his Commission, and after some Debate on the admitting him, it was agreed, that whatever might be legally objected against him by a party having interest should be received at any time even after his Admission, and the Vote stated, admit in these terms or not, carried ad libitum; it was then moved that he having been once Papist, might take the Formula subjoyn'd to the Act for preventing the Growth of Popery, which he did; desiring it might be insert in the Minutes, that he own'd his being Protestant several years before that Act, and thereafter took the Oath of Alledgeance and Oath of Parliament, and Subscribed the said Formula, with the Alledgeance and Assurance.

The Minutes of the last Sederunt read;

Petition for Archibald Marquis of Douglas, craving a Warrant for citing the Earl of Forfar to insist upon his Protestation for remedy of Law against him, read, and at the Earls request, allowed to be seen and answered the next sitting of Parliament.

Agreed, That an Overture for an Act in favours of the Town of Glasgow; A Petition by the Delegates of the Woollen and Silk Manufactories; and an Overture for an Act in favours of the Shire of Caithness be all considered the first sitting of Parliament for privat Business.

Moved, that the Petition of the Laird of Maristoun be granted, desiring that Her Majesties Advocate, Sir Gilbert Elliot, and Sir David Cunningham, albeit Members of Parliament, may be allowed to plead his Cause against Sir James Cockburn, and these Advocates allowed to plead for him accordingly.

Petition for Anna Cockburn, for making up the Tenor of burnt Writs, read, and agreed, that the Report of her Cause be received and considered the first Sederunt of Parliament for privat Business.

The controverted Election betwixt Lieutenant-General Ramsay of Cariden, and Thomas Sharp of Houshoun for the Shire of West-Lothian, called, and the Objections against Houshouns Electors being first insisted in, he past from the Votes of John Mcfarlain, Alexander Glen, the Laird of Balcaskie younger, and John Hamilton of Pumphrestoun. It was objected against Mr. James Hamilton of Borgour, that his Ladies free Hold extended to no more than a thirty shilling Land of old Extent, she being one of two Heirs portioners to a Brother, who though he was once infett in a five pound Land, was afterwards denuded of a fourty shilling Land, so that the Lady had Right to no more more than the equal half of the remaining three pound Land. 2. The Lady not being infeft, could not as appearand Heir give right to her Husband to vote as a Free-holder; To which it being answered, that the denuding the Brother of fourty shilling of his five pound Land, was not objected at the Election, and therefore is not now receivable in Parliament. 2. The general terms of the Act 1681 gave the right of Election to the Husband of an appearand Heir, as well as to that of a Free holder infeft; The Vote was stated, Sustain these Objections or no, and carried Sustain: It was objected against Robert Johnston of Straiton, that he was only appearand Heir to an Annualrenter, and not to a Proprietare; And it being answered, that his Father stood infeft in a Free-hold in the terms of the Act 1681: It was replied, that his Charter produced, instructed not a Fourty shilling Land of old Extent; And Duplyed, that it contained a third part of a Land which was instructed by an older Charter produced to be of yearly Extent twenty four pound and a Merk land, which ought to be presumed to be of old Extent; The Vote was thereupon stated, Sustain, or Repell the Objection, and carried Repell. It was then objected against John Hamilton of Grange, that not being infeft he could have no Vote as appearand Heir to his Father, because there were Children of his elder Brother. 2. Though his ius apparentie were not questioned, he was not in possession, without which his Apparency gave him no right of Election: And it being answered, that his Brothers Children were declared Spurious by Decree of the Judge competent, and that he truly was in possession; It was replied, that he could not possess as Heir to the Free holder last infeft, his Father being denuded by Adjudication in the year 1671, and the Legal now long since expired, the Rents were sequestrat by Decree of the Lords in the hands of a Factor for the behove of the Adjudgers, and there being several Writs produced for instructing the Reply, the Advocats for Grange were allowed to see them till next sitting of Parliament.

The controverted Elections for the Stewartrie of Orkney called, and the Advocats for either party being heard, the Objection was made against the Elections of Sir Archibald Stuart of Burray and Alexander Douglas of Eglesham, that there was no legal Intimation for certiorating the Free holders. And it being answered, that the Election was made at the Michaelmas Head court, and so needed no previous Intimation, and replied, that there was never a Michaelmas Head court held in Orkney; and Duplyed, that the Act of Parliament appointing the annual Elections at the Michaelmas Court was sufficient, both for a Warrant and Intimation of the present Election; And Triplyed, that the constant custom of Orkney was, to hold the first Court after Michaelmas on the 2d. day of November, and therefore this Election being at Michaelmas, cannot be understood to have been at the Michaelmas Head court. And Quadruplyed, that the Act of Parliament makes the Michaelmas Head court to be the first Court after Michaelmas day, and this Election having been made upon Michaelmas day, must be understood to have been as it ought in Law to be, the first Court after Michaelmas, the Minuts of the Court of Election, and the Instruments and Protestations taken thereat, with a Protestation taken thereafter against the Clerk of the Court, were then read; and the Vote stated, Sustain, or Repell the Objection, and carried Repell, after which Sir William Craigie of Cairney, and Henry Graham of Braichness, having withdrawn their Commissions, and offering to object against Eglesham, as being incapable to elect, or be elected, and there being no further Objection against Sir Archibald Stuart, he was admitted as legally elected, and took the Oath of Alledgeance and Oath of Parliament, and subscribed the Alledgeance and Assurance accordingly.

The Rolls called,*

THe Minutes of the last Sederunt being read, the Lord Secretary protested that the Deliverance on the Petition of the Heretors of Inverness and Refs, in favours of Duncan Forbes of Culloden, might not prejudice Her Majesties Interest in the annexed Property of the Excise: that it might neither operate an Extension of, nor Addition to the Acts in favours of the said Duncan Forbes, nor import any Monopoly in prejudice of the Petitioners or others, and that it might not derogate from, nor prejudice any Obligation upon the said Duncan to any Shire or person as accords of the Law; And thereupon asked Instructions.

Then Her Majesties High Commissioner made a Speech to the Parliament in manner following,

My Lords and Gentlemen,

IT Was with great uneasiness to me that I was forced to be silent yesterday, when so many did appear earnest that I should speak, I have all the Inclination in the World to give you full Satisfaction; But I thought that I ought not to be pressed to give the Royal Assent, or to Declare my Instructions in Parliament which I had made known to many Noble and Worthy Members, besides the Queens Servants.

Now, that these instances are let fall, and that you have proceeded to other Business, to testify how willing I am to give you Contentment in any thing that's in my power; I tell you freely, that I have received Her Majesties Pleasure, and am fully empowered to give the Royal Assent to all the Acts voted in this Session, excepting only that Act Intituled, Act for Security of the Kingdom. (you may easily believe that requires Her Majesties further Consideration) at the same time, Her Majesty expects, that you will mind your own Safety, in making necessary Provisions for the Troops upon the present Establishment, and that you will put the Trade and Customs stones on that foot, that the civil List may be supported ; And I intreat your Lordships to finish these as quickly as possible, that this Session may be put to a speedy and happy Conclusion.

It was thereupon moved, that there may be an Address of Parliament to Her Majesty, humbly intreating that Her Majesty may be pleased to give the Royal Assent to the said Act ; and after some Debate upon that Motion, the Vote was stated, Address, or Proceed to other Business, and carried proceed to other Business.

WE have now past several good Acts for our Religion, Liberty and Trade, which I hope will be acceptable to all Her Majesties good Subjects, I wish you had also given the Supplies necessary for the maintaining of Her Majesties Forces, and preserving the Peace and Safety of the Kingdom; but since I hope this may be yet done in due time, and that besides some Questions and Difficulties are fallen, that in all probability you can have no time to determine; And that withal, it is fit Her Majesty should have time to consider upon some things that have been laid before Her, and that we may know Her Mind therein more perfectly, a short Recess appears at present to be necessary, and that this Parliament be adjourned for some time: And therefore I have ordered my Lord Chancellor to adjourn this Parliament until the Twelfth day of October next.

The Lord Chancellor by Order of Her Majesties high Commissioner, Adjourned the Parliament till Tuesday the Twelfth day of October next.

BY Order of his Grace, James Duke of Queensberry Her Majesties high Commissioner, and the Estates of Parliament, Sir James Murray of Philiphaugh, one of the Senators of the Colledge of Justice, Lord Clerk Register Appoints the Heirs and Successors of Andrew Anderson Her majesties Printer to Print these Minuts of Parliament, and that no other presume to Print the same.

JA. MURRAY, Cls. Reg.

Edinburgh, Printed by the Heirs and Successors of Andrew Anderson, Printer to the Queen's most Excellent Majesty, Anno Dom. 1703.
